

GPC 2020 Postponement Frequently Asked Questions

Q. As a Georgia Procurement Conference registrant will I receive a refund?

A. Yes, we will be offering all customers a refund. You can choose from the following options:

1. Automatically carry your registration forward to the postponed GPC on August 11-13 in Jekyll Island.
2. Get a full refund of your registration cost.

Our GPC team will be sending out a survey to all registrants on March 25th regarding these conference/refund options.

Q. Can I change the name on my paid registration?

A. Yes, contact gpc.info@doas.ga.gov with your initial confirmation and information and the corresponding information for the replacement (name, email, employee ID, preferred first name for badge).

Q. I had cancelled my booth. Can I get back in?

A. Yes, contact Gary.Craft@doas.ga.gov to coordinate reinstatement of your booth.

Q. How do I learn more about the postponed conference?

A. Stay tuned! We are busy confirming everything for our postponed conference and will have all the details available as soon as possible.

Q. What happens to my hotel reservation?

A. Each registrant is responsible for cancelling their own hotel reservations.

Q. I canceled recently and did not receive a full refund, will I receive a refund of the difference?

A. Yes. Everyone who canceled after March 1st can either be refunded the balance or reregister and apply the funds to the postponed GPC.

Q. Who do I contact for more information?

A. Please contact Gpc.info@doas.ga.gov for any other questions.
