Re: Audit of Cancelled Solicitations – June 2023

Background

A state entity may withdraw or cancel a solicitation posted to the Georgia Procurement Registry (GPR). Section 4.8.2 of the Georgia Procurement Manual (GPM) requires “a notice of cancellation, SPD-SPR014RFX Cancellation Notice, will be issued to include either a description or to document the reason for the cancellation.” Posting a cancellation notice to the GPR for a cancelled solicitation is important to ensure transparency in the solicitation process.

What we audited

SPD Audits identified 20 solicitations posted to the GPR in June 2023 that had a status of “cancelled” (as of July 28, 2023) from 15 state entities. The cancelled solicitations are shown by the solicitation process in Table 1.

Table 1
Cancelled Solicitations by Solicitation Process
June 2023

Solicitation Process	Number Cancelled
Request for Quotations (RFQ)	12
Sole Source	5
Request for Proposal (RFP)	2
Request for Information (RFI)	1
Total	20
Source: Georgia Procurement Registry

Results

Using the requirements from the GPM and State law as guidance, the audit identified the following:

- 15 (79%) of the 19 cancelled solicitations requiring a cancellation notice contained the required Form SPD-SPR014RFX Cancellation Notice.
- Four (21%) of the 19 cancelled solicitations requiring a cancellation notice did not contain the required Form SPD-SPR014RFX Cancellation Notice.

- One of the cancelled solicitations was not subject to the State Purchasing Act and not under the purview of the Department of Administrative Services (DOAS). Consequently, this solicitation is not subject to posting the cancellation notice as the GPM requires.

Conclusion

Where it occurs, SPD audits will contact the state entities which did not post a cancellation notice and ask them to upload the required Form SPD-SPR014RFX Cancellation Notice as soon as possible. SPD will continue to monitor solicitations that were posted in prior months of fiscal year 2023, which remained in a status of “open” or “under evaluation” at the time of the audit to ensure that the required actions are taken.
